TENNIS TEAM DEFEATS DETROIT U. PLAYERS.

Blue and Gold Loses One Match in Single—Chapel Bell Rung.

The chapel bell rang last Wednesday night for the first time to herald
the victory of the Trinity tennis team over the pair representing the University of Detroit. Trinity won one and lost one of the single matches and won the doubles match. The victory did not come without very brilliant playing on the part of all the men, which filled every minute of the three hours of the match with thrills.

J. Ortgies defeated Devine of Detroit in the singles, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, and

TRACK TEAM LOSES TO STEVENS TECH.

Trinity Team's Weakness in Weights Counts Heavily.

Stevens Institute took the track team into camp at Hoboken, Wednesday, May 18, by a score of 86½ to 39½. Weakness in the weights was again responsible for the size of the opponent's score. All events were closely contested, in the 440-yard dash DeGarmo of Stevens, being forced to break the college record in beating Captain Ransom.

The summary:
100-yard dash—Conrow (S); De-
Garmo (S); Nash (T). Time 10 4-5 seconds.

STUDENTS PLEDGE AID TO CAMPAIGN

One Hundred Per Cent. Subscription from Undergrads for Centennial Fund.

SLATTERY ELECTED CHAIRMAN.

President Ogilby Announces that Campaign is Going Well.

One hundred per cent. support of the Centennial Fund Campaign for $1,500,000 is the sentiment of the undergraduate body, expressed at a meeting yesterday morning. At the same meeting, Harold T. Slattery was elected chairman of a committee to get subscriptions from the undergraduates, with power to appoint his own committee.

President Ogilby spoke briefly at the meeting, announcing that the campaign was going well. He told of some of the contributions which had been made, and urged action on the part of the undergraduates that would show the alumni where the students stood.

At a meeting of the athletic association, amendments to the constitution were adopted, putting basketball on the same level, with baseball and track, and providing for a uniform insignia.

ELECTION OF STUDIES.

Under New Ruling Faculty Advisors
Must Endorse Cards.

Elective cards for next year must be filed with the committee on electives before the beginning of the final examinations. Under a new ruling elective cards must be endorsed by the faculty advisors. Students should call on their advisors and secure their endorsements during this week. This should not be left till the last day. First obtain a blank elective card from the college office.
Next make an appointment with your faculty advisor. In consultation with him make out your list of studies, and secure his signature on your card. Then on Friday, June 3, between 2 and 3 p. m., or on Saturday, June 4, between 10 a. m. and 1 p. m., hand in your card to the committee on electives in the faculty room, Williams Memorial.

Students Seek Employment.

A number of the undergraduates have not been able to secure summer work. Any special effort on the part of any alumnus to give these students an opportunity will be greatly appreciated. Address, M. L.
Hersey, Student Bureau of Appointments, Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut.

TRADITIONS.

The ringing of the new bell Wednesday after the victory of the tennis team inaugurated a new tradition at Trinity—and a worthy one. But what has become of the traditions of a few years ago? It was customary for the seniors to attend daily chapel in cap and gown after the Easter recess. The class of 1919 tried half-heartedly to revive this custom but failed. It is a part of the traditional Trinity sportsmanship to cheer an opponent, regardless of the outcome of the game, but this seems to be going. The Lemon Squeezer is but a memory. A college of the age of Trinity should have more than one tradition. If we can't revive the old ones, let's invent some more.

COME TO LIFE.

If Trinity were located well south of the Mason-Dixie line, a scientist who attended the meeting of the college body Monday morning might have secured plenty of material for a monograph on the effect of damp weather on hookworm victims. Trinity is located in the invigorating north, residents of which are supposed to have enough innate vitality to carry them through an occasional muggy day without betraying signs of deadly lethargy. The meeting yesterday was dead, inexcusably so, and the college has cause to feel ashamed of the showing it made.

THE SENIOR PROM.

The senior class is apparently laboring under a misapprehension in feeling that there would be a larger undergraduate attendance at the dance if it were held on Friday of Commencement Week instead of Monday. The men who are here Friday usually stay over the rest of the commencement period, and if they go to the dance at all, will go just as readily on Monday as on Friday night. If the prom is held on Friday night it will conflict with the fraternity reunions. Wives and sweethearts are rather "non grata" at the reunions, and a senior prom held at the same time as the reunions would either result in poorly attended reunions or in a dance at which the "stags" were in an unpleasantly great majority.

FRANKLIN K. LANE.

It is with genuine regret that Trinity learns of the death of her adopted son, former Secretary of the Interior, Franklin K. Lane. Trinity honored itself in honoring him with the degree of Doctor of Laws. His record has been an impressive one, and one which any man may envy. Perhaps one of his most noteworthy achievements is the way in which he was able to stand the searching criticism aimed at the Wilson administration without the least suspicion being cast upon his motives. His services to his country were great, for he performed faithfully and well all these duties which were laid upon him during the trying time of war. Let that be his epitaph.

TENNIS.

Freeman lost to Gross 6-4, 6-4. Freeman put up a game battle against his opponent, and both sets were marked by long rallies. In the Ortgies-Devine match the first set went to 3 all, and then Ortgies ran out the set. In the second set, Devine took the first three games, then Ortgies tied the score, but Devine came back and took the seventh, eighth and ninth games and the set. In the last set, Ortgies took the first two games, the second being a long deuce battle, Devine taking the next two. In the fifth game, Ortgies turned in the first love game of the afternoon on his own service. He also won the sixth and seventh games, but Devine took the eighth game after it had gone to deuce three times. Ortgies took the ninth game and the set on his own service.

In the double matches, the Ortgies brothers played together. The first set went to Trinity with surprising ease, Trinity winning four love games, two on Howard Ortgies' service and one on Gross' service, and taking the set at 6-3. The second set was a tight affair going eighteen games before Detroit finally won. The Trinity pair took the final set, 7-5.

The summary:

Singles:

J. Ortgies (T) defeated Devine (D) 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Gross (D) defeated Freeman (T) 6-4, 6-4.

Doubles:

J. Ortgies and H. Ortgies (T) defeated Gross and Devine (D) 6-3, 8-10, 7-5.

PRESIDENT OGILBY DEFINES VALUE OF EDUCATION.

(Special to THE TRIPOD.)

New York, May 14—President Ogilby, speaking at the rally of the Trinity alumni here last night, said in part:

"I want to make my attempt, in the enthusiasm of my new task, to phrase a definition of the value of a college education. Other wiser heads have written books on the subject, so like a cat observing royalty, I will try to do it in a sentence. The value of a college education is first an ability to accumulate facts, distinguishing false from true, secondly, the facility of bringing those facts into relation with the previously acquired knowledge of self and others, and finally a passionate desire to make right whatever this knowledge reveals is at variance with the ideal of human society.

"Applied to Trinity, the first part of this definition means that it is not primarily our task in education to distribute knowledge. Technical, professional and scientific schools have that as their aim, but it is rather our task to train the mind so that it can readily search for knowledge. We are pointers, not retrievers.

"The second part introduces the factor of culture, of perspective of expression of knowledge. Whatever a college man knows should be known in relation to the whole; and is valuable just in so far as his view of the whole is broad and true. Trinity does not train specialists, but men the foundations of whose education is wide and solid.

"Finally must come the impetus to action, the zest for service. Here we rest upon our record. The readiness of Trinity men to meet needs, local and national, needs no advertisement.

"It is to perpetuate this ideal of education that we are met tonight. It is to provide such facilities for the coming generations that Trinity calls for aid. Her ideal of education has meant much for church and country for one century—we are wondering now about the next."

Yale Wins at Tennis.

Trinity was defeated in tennis by the Yale second team on Wednesday, May 18, at New Haven. The team was handicapped by the fact that Captain J. A. Ortgies did not make the trip. The match was extremely hard fought.

The summary:

Singles.

Benedict, Yale, defeated Freeman, Trinity, 6-0, 6-2.

Symington, Yale, defeated Graham, Trinity, 7-5, 6-1.

Weidlich, Yale, defeated C. Cunningham, Trinity, 6-1, 6-3.

Ruthgaber, Yale, defeated J. Cunningham, Trinity, 6-3, 6-3.

Doubles.

Mims and Symington, Yale, defeated, Freeman and Graham, Trinity, 6-3, 6-1.

Ruthgaber and Oliver, Yale, defeated, C. Cunningham, and J. Cunningham, Trinity, 6-3, 6-3.

F. K. LANE, h. '19, DEAD.

Former Secretary of Interior Succumbs to Heart Disease.

Franklin K. Lane, recipient of the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws in 1919, and Secretary of the Interior in the Wilson administration died at Rochester, Minn., on May 18. He had been suffering from heart disease for about eight months.

He was born near Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, July 15, 1864, the son of a Canadian doctor. Lane was educated at the University of California from which he was graduated in 1886. By reason of his scholastic achievements the honorary degree of LL. D. was conferred upon him some years later by his Alma Mater and by New York and Brown Universities and the University of North Carolina.

Upon leaving college he engaged in newspaper work, becoming part owner and editor of the Tacoma Washington "Daily News." In 1889 he was admitted to the bar of California and from 1897 until 1902, served as corporation counsel of San Francisco. In the latter year he was the democratic candidate for governor of California but was not elected. He received the party vote of the state legislature in 1903 for United States senator. Appointed a member of the interstate commerce commission by President Roosevelt in 1905, later becoming chairman. Mr. Lane was serving in that capacity when he was made secretary of the interior.

The body was cremated, but it has not yet been decided what will be done with the ashes.

Because members of the printers' union are on strike, "The Lafayette" has been forced to suspend publication.

Governor Lake Urges Support of Centennial Fund.

EDUCATION TO INSURE

AGAINST RADICALISM.

Must Look to Old and Living Activities for Fundamental Right.

A well developed educational system is the best insurance against the spread of radicalism, Governor Everett J. Lake declared last night in a statement urging support of the Trinity College alumni undertaking for a centennial fund of $1,500,000. Referring to the age of the college, he pointed out that old institutions are strong assets in days of threatened changes, since their very age indicates that they have been faithful to some "permanent truth."

"An institution that lives today and at the same time traces its origin back through a hundred years of the life of the republic, recommends itself to the serious consideration of all citizens," the Governor said. "These are days of new problems and threatened changes, and in the face of them there are some who seem to forget that certain principles are eternally true. Unless an institution, whether it be a college or a business or a form of government, is grounded in some permanent truth it cannot be perpetuated. It is to our old and living institutions that we look to see what is good and fundamentally right.

"Such an institution is Trinity College, which has just celebrated the ninety-eighth anniversary of its founding, and as such it is an asset of great value to the city of Hartford and to the nation.

"As a member of the general committee of the Centennial organization, I know that Trinity's needs are as real as the value of the college. It seems hardly necessary to stress the importance of a suitable salary endowment. The story of the underpaid teacher is too well known. A new gymnasium is the second requirement. Athletics play no minor part in the training of men, and this is admirably recognized at Trinity by the inclusion of athletics among the required college courses. Such a wise policy deserves the support of adequate athletic facilities.

"If our schools and colleges suffer, as they have suffered, through our failure to recognize their needs, the consequences will be a lowering of intellectual and moral standards and a situation ripe for the spread of unsound theories and destructive social philosophies. Our best insurance against radicalism is a well-developed educational system, and as an old, tested and living factor in that system Trinity College recommends itself to our active interest and support."

Governor Lake is a member of the general committee of the Centennial campaign organization, of which Judge Joseph Buffington is chairman.

TRINITY BALL TEAM LOSES TWO GAMES.
Connecticut Aggies and Williams
Nines have Holiday at Trinity Expense.

Handicapped by the lack of a good pitcher, the Trinity team dropped two games last week by bad scores. Captain Reynolds is out with a bad arm, Ortgies had quit baseball, and Brickley was called home by the injury of his father, leaving the twirling up to Bowdidge, who did as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Aggies Win.

Trinity lost to Connecticut Aggies on Wednesday by a score of 11 to 3. Hall, who started the game with a single and was also the last man to bat, featured with the stick, getting a single, a double, and a triple. Trinity chalked up eight hits to thirteen by the Aggies. Mackinnon's work in this respect was also noteworthy, making two singles and a double, on two occasions bringing in runs. Ortgies was very much missed in the box. Bowdidge, who held the mound for the entire game, had his first workout of this season the day before the game, and considering this, pitched very creditable ball.

Williams Game.

On Saturday, the baseball team again met defeat, this time at the hands of Williams. The game was marked by loose fielding throughout. Bowdidge, who started on the mound, held the Williams nine to five hits for the first five innings, but lost his arm in the sixth and had to be taken out after they had found him for five hits in a row. Jones connected with the Williams' delivery for three hits in four trips to the plate, one of them being a three-bagger. He scored two of Trinity's runs and brought in two others. Wolfe, who
